SKILLS-BASED THERAPIES

Cielo House is a group of residential and outpatient Eating Disorder Treatment Centers with five separate locations throughout the Bay Area.

With a dedicated staff of therapists, dietitians and medical professionals, we provide comprehensive Eating Disorder Treatment customized to match the needs of each client every step of the way.

Cielo House is committed to using treatments that are scientifically proven; they also employ techniques designed to treat more than just the symptoms of the Eating Disorder, but to help the person in all aspects of their life. At Cielo House, clients cultivate important life skills to take with them even after they move on from the program.

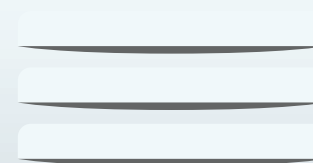

Our adolescent program is located in the beautiful city on San Jose, CA in a comfortable homelike setting.
